

Initiative “in favour of tiles” EUF and VDF

Package data - article master data

Goal:

- Defining possibilities of standardization in order to optimize product consultation and product communication, warehouse logistics at the specialised dealers and the flooring specialists as well as fixing the tiles.

Package data

- Limiting the package weight to 25 kg for tile formats that could normally be carried by one single person.
Maximum tile size is 60x60 cm.
- Verifying the stability of packages and pallets
- Defining the Euro-pallet as the standard

Article master data

- Standardizing the system for price lists and price list contents as regards contents and presentation.
- The system of article master data shall contain the following standardized information.
 - manufacturer, article, series name
 - description of the article with the following information:
 - product group or type of material, basic tile, décor, border, base tile, mosaic, step
 - colour, nominal dimension, production size, thickness, rectified, polished, even, satin finished, relief style, resistance group
 - frost resistance, sure-footedness for private and commercial sector
 - resistance groups, recommendations for surface treatment
 - quantity and weight units
 - EAN-code
 - intro-number
 - image and photo data.